Sir:

Referring to my letter of March 30th last, and your reply written on margin of Circular "Rules Governing Issuing of Passports in the United States". viz

"Minors old enough to understand an oath, may apply in the same manner as if they were over 21 years of age". I beg leave to enclose the application of Master Eldridge Green, of this City, whom I have examined as his knowledge of the solemnity and importance of subscribing to the enclosed oath of allegiance; which examination was satisfactory to me in every respect; and I beg to enclose the usual fee of One Dollar, and ask that his Passport may be sent to my care as requested.

I have the honor to be Sir:

Very respectfully.
